Description

This delightful property is available exclusively through Jalon Valley Homes and Holidays and really must be seen to be fully appreciated. It is also available on a rent to buy option: contact us for further details on this.

It is located within walking distance of Alcalali Village with its array of tapas bars and restaurants - the nearest being just a few minutes walk.

The property is situated on a completely enclosed corner plot with gated driveway and has ample parking for a few cars. The grounds to the property boast a Mediterranean theme and are extremely low maintenance, they also feature a lovely private pool.

The accommodation has a perfect layout and includes a lovely open plan lounge with feature fireplace and dining area, a fully fitted and equipped kitchen, two double bedrooms, a family shower room and a lovely master suite with en suite bathroom and a large wardrobe. Doors from the lounge, kitchen and master suite lead out to a beautiful covered dining terrace that overlooks the swimming pool. The views from here are absolutely stunning.

The property benefits from an under build storage facility, air conditioning and central heating. Contact us now to arrange a viewing.
