If you are in love with the Old Town of Marbella and enjoy walking through its streets, squares and corners, this house for sale located in Nueva Street will enchant you.

The property with more than one hundred years of antiquity has been completely renovated in the last decade respecting the bourgeois air of the s. XIX and incorporating light modern touches.

It has a beautiful façade with a marked Andalusian style, decorated with beautiful flowers, where the life of the old town can be seen.

The house is distributed around a bright interior courtyard from which you can access two large living rooms, kitchen and guest toilet, auxiliary room and three bedrooms en suite.

From its roof you can enjoy fantastic evenings with views of the Encarnación Church .
