Rustic farm 4 minutes timed from the town of Casarabonela with an area of 12,000 m2 planted with olive trees and water well.

On top of the farm, is the house of two floors.

The main floor of modern style loft is composed of a large American kitchen, a toilet, laundry, pantry and a huge living room with fireplace all surrounded by large windows that give a great light to the whole..

The upper floor is unfinished but, ready for installation of spiral staircase that goes up to a large space to install the bedroom and a bathroom en suite in addition to opening a large window where you can enjoy the best sunrises given its east orientation and its great visual opening towards an infinite horizon.

On the outside of the house there is a large patio of 473 m2 from where you can enjoy the same views apart from watching the horse stable that is just below it.

The property is fully fenced and will delight anyone who wants tranquility and privacy but without being far from the beautiful and lively town.
