A 57 story 192 unit residential tower along 300 feet of oceanfront in Sunny Isles Beach. This project stands out among Miamis new high-design buildings and has been created by internationally renowned Pritzker Prize winning architecture firm Herzog de Meuron. The superstar team also includes Parisian interior design firm PYR led by Pierre Yves Rochon and premier landscape architect Raymond Jungles. Entrance and lobby are directly connected to its pool and the beach establishing a unique and seamless connection between the common areas and stunning natural surroundings. Residences are highlighted by flow-through floor plans that also host outrageously expansive terraces..
