HIGUERICAS VILLAS are semi detached villas situated just 200m from the sea, one of the longest sandy beaches in the area. This new development, that consists of 18 exclusive 3 bedroom semi-detached villas, is situated only 200 metres from Las Higuericas beach. Torre de la Horadada is one of the most sought after locations on the Costa Blanca coast, with miles of white sandy beaches. It is the most southern point of the Alicante region, with the Mar Menor only a few km away. These beautiful properties offer everything youâ€™d expect, with modern design and quality features. The villas All the villas have three bedrooms and two bathrooms, a spacious, bright and airy livingroom connected with a modern open kitchen. They also have a roof terrace overlooking the Mediterranean turquoise waters and the Spanish countryside. In the large garden there is space for private pool, which can be built as an option.
