Restored Village House - The property is a lovely little treasure and a must to view!

This beautifully reformed and restored small village house is a perfect place to escape to. Lovely quiet neighbourhood - close to River Ebre for the fishing enthusiast -

Restored to a very high standard and presently distributed to include:

Entrance to open plan living/dining/kitchen with downstairs cloakroom and small outside space for keeping items such as bicycles/gas bottles etc. Woodburning stove which heats the whole house.

Stairs to 1st floor which is again open plan incorporating similar to a studio apartment - double bedroom/seating area/patio doors to outside terrace area with bbq etc.

Good size wet room.

The property has been reformed and restored to include stone walls - large wooden beams throughout - ceiling arched tiles - all windows & patio doors are double glazed. The property is being sold furnished (if required).
