On entering the driveway from the automatic gates there is ample parking before the double garage. The main entrance to the villa is at this level and as you walk into the property through the hall way you will immediately see the amazing views in front. The spacious lounge area which has several large windows so is very light. To the back of the lounge is a guest toilet and office area. There is a very large terrace area which is accessible directly from the lounge. Directly to the left is another sitting area and separate dining room which is connected to the fully fitted kitchen with a centre island. To the right of the lounge is the large master bedroom with dressing area and en-suit. Before the bedroom there is a staircase going down to the lower floor. At the moment this level has a lounge area, large bedroom with en-suit, Sauna, storage and utility room. To the right of this area is an indoor swimming pool with room for a sauna and jacuzzi rooms. This still has to be completed. The other option would be to make another 3 bedrooms with en-suits which would give 5 bedrooms. The outside terrace includes many covered areas a 10x5 swimming pool which incorporates a fully fitted kitchen in the shape of a circle attached to the pool its self. There is also an outside shower and toilet. To the far end of the swimming pool is a fountain and pond elegantly set in a roman type frame. The villa has full gas under floor central heating, air conditioning throughout, a central vacuum system and in mint condition.
