Villa with seaview for sale in Benitachell. This villa was build in 2000 on a nice south-west facing plot in Cumbre del Sol. It benefits from lovely view to the sea, Bernia mountain with the stunning sun sets and to the Montgo. You access the house walking down a flight of stairs through the nicely arranged and low maintainance garden. The house is all on one floor and comprises of 2 bedrooms, 1 bath, ample open plan lounge, diner and kitchen. In the back is a shady BBQ area and in the front a nice naya with the stunning views. Off there the owner have added a big open terrace to get even more view and sun. The pool lies in the lower level and underneath the newly build terrace is space to put a summer lounge and kitchen or a studio. The underbuild of 80m² give also scope to be developed in further accommodation. The house benefits of double glazed windows and a fire place that heats the whole house. Under floor heating has been pre installed. All over the plot you find nice little terraces and spaces to be. Underneath the pool is a big space that could be a guest apartment. A property with lots of possibilities if one get bored.
