The property is entered via a private driveway with a large parking area and double garage with an additional underbuild / storage area. From the front door you enter an inner hallway which opens into a bright, spacious lounge with high, wooden beamed ceilings and a lovely log burning stove. The fully-fitted kitchen has ample wall and base units as well as a proper larder. Two passage ways lead to the naya where you can enjoy stunning views across the pool terrace to the valley and the mountains beyond. The master bedroom in the villa has an en-suite bathroom and this and the other two large double bedrooms all have built-in wardrobes. The low-maintenance gardens are gravelled and planted with typical Mediterranean shrubs and trees with lovely areas for relaxing and al-fresco dining and entertaining. A lovely property in a beautiful setting where you can enjoy the peace and of course the amazing views.
