This stunning villa in Lliber Costa Blanca (Spain) has 9 large bedrooms and 8 spectacular bathrooms including a separate 2 bedroom with en-suite apartment, the main living space comprises of large lounge with bar area with all mod cons and access to a pool where the bar continues, large Italian style kitchen diner, formal lounge with handmade marble granite fire place, one of two master bedrooms with dressing area and en-suite, office, toilet and large main hall with stunning staircase and front entrance to the property. On the second floor are the remaining bedrooms, all except one are exceptionally large and are en-suite, with patio doors leading to terrace and views to the pool area, on this floor there is a small kitchen which could be made into another apartment and large bathroom with round bath and stunning views. The property has industrial gas central heating and air con throughout the villa, 40,000 litres water deposit but is also on mains water and electric. Outside the property there is parking for many cars, a garage for at least 5 cars but could be converted into more living space, the 15 x 5 pool is surrounded by terraces and the property wraps around the pool giving access from the main living areas of the property. The property has been built to a very high standard and as can be seen by the dedication of the builders with all the stone work on all the walls of the villa, gardens are ready for somebody to put their stamp on them. This property was built for a large family but has potential to be much more than this, and would be ideal as a hotel or holiday retreat or venue for weddings. With so many extras viewing is essential to see what this property can offer. There is also in addition to the panoramic valley and mountain views that is characteristic of this area a very unusual distant seaview..
